

Costume Design Challenge

JOLANDA ODERMATT

CAA20SFX

31/08/2021

Winnie The Pooh redesigned

In the 1920s, boys wore clothes made of cotton and wool, like knit jerseys, cardigans, and shorts. Cotton and wool were sturdy fabrics that could stand up to the weather and hold up well to rough play. The Boys could feel free to run and play as they liked without worrying about their clothes.

Boys' New Style Pullovers
Boys' Long Service Sweaters
Heavy Jumbo Knit Sweater
Snug and Long-Wearing
Here's A Special Value
Boys' Rolled Collar Style
Serviceable
For General Wear
Very Popular

FALL & WINTER 1920-21 We Pay Shipping Charges on Any Order Amounting to $5.00 or Over 277

